NO. 2011-CA-000232-MR

AMERICAN SADDLEBRED HORSE ASSOCIATION, INC. APPELLANT

v. APPEAL FROM FAYETTE CIRCUIT COURT
ACTION NO. 09-CI-05292

EDWARD BENNETT, ET AL. APPELLEES

ORDER

* * * * *

Appellant has taken this appeal from a final judgment in a declaratory judgment action in which the Fayette Circuit Court determined that appellees, members of the appellant American Saddlebred Horse Association, Inc. (ASHA), are entitled to inspect and copy books and records of the ASHA. By order entered on February 28, 2011, the circuit court denied the appellant's motion to stay enforcement of the judgment generally pending appeal. However, that order does stay enforcement "until April 4, 2011, unless a longer stay is granted by an appellate court pursuant to CR 65.08." Before this Court, the appellant filed a motion for stay pending appeal and a motion for emergency relief pending a ruling on the motion for stay.

Having considered the motion for emergency relief, and having been otherwise sufficiently advised, the Court ORDERS that the motion for emergency relief be GRANTED and enforcement of the January 6, 2011, order of the Fayette Circuit Court is STAYED pending this Court's ruling on the appellant's motion for stay pending appeal. The motion for stay pending appeal will come before a three-judge panel of this Court after the response time provided by CR 65.08(5) has run.

ENTERED:     MAR 24 2011
